One Art

By Elizabeth Bishop 1976

The art of losing isn't hard to master;
so many things seem filled with the intent
to be lost that their loss is no disaster.

Lose something every day. Accept the fluster
Of lost door keys, the hour badly spent.
The art of losing isn't hard to master.

Then practice losing farther, losing faster:
places, and names, and where it was you meant to travel. None of these will bring disaster.

I lost my mother's watch. And look! My last,
or next-to-last, of three loved houses went.
The art of losing isn't hard to master.

I lost two cities, lovely ones. And, vaster,
Some realms I owned, two rivers, a continent.
I miss them, but it wasn't a disaster.

---Even losing you (the joking voice, a gesture
I love I shan't have lied. It's evident
the art of losing's not too hard to master though it may look like (Write it!) like disaster.

Spotlight PA

Christopher Baxter, CEO & President of Spotlight PA visited the Village to discuss how they are trying to grow and expand their work and provide tangible impact to residents of Centre Co.

Land Grant Frescoes

Village Resident Anne Riley provided a "show and tell" about the Land Grant Murals prior to four on-site visits to Old Main to view and learn about Penn State's Land Grant Frescoes. Thank you Anne, for your time and sharing your knowledge with the residents. You are greatly appreciated!

Advanced Care Planning

Always learning, always caring. Thank you, Dr. Karen Brown, MD, HDMC, for sharing your expertise in hospice and palliative care.

Garden

Corinne's Garden is in full bloom, showcasing the beauty of the season.
